

Professional Diploma in Strategy and Innovation

80%

of top executives think innovation is key to their growth strategy, but only

are satisfied with their innovation performance.

Develop and lead innovation in your organisation

The next generation of leaders will be the innovators.

For the successful leader, a capacity to understand and shape the strategy process is an essential requirement for career development. By completing the Professional Diploma in Strategy and Innovation you will learn the skills to lead, influence, and participate in the strategic success of your organisation.

In light of recent global events, and the economic changes that have been brought about, it's organisations that can strategically innovate to deliver value in the future marketplaces that will flourish.

This programme is for you if:

- › You have an ambition to play a leading role in developing and implementing strategy and innovation in your organisation.
- › You work in the private or public sector, regardless of organisation size.

A Graduate's View:

// The learning journey was further enriched by the quality of classroom discussions across a diverse group of students. An enjoyable and challenging experience to develop innovation or strategy capabilities and experience. //

→ Professional Diploma in Strategy and Innovation

This programme will equip you to:

Undertake a key role in the strategy and innovation process.

Evaluate and address the strategic challenges facing your organisation.

Make strategic sense of the global and domestic business environment.

Develop a practical, well-informed strategy audit for your business or organisation.

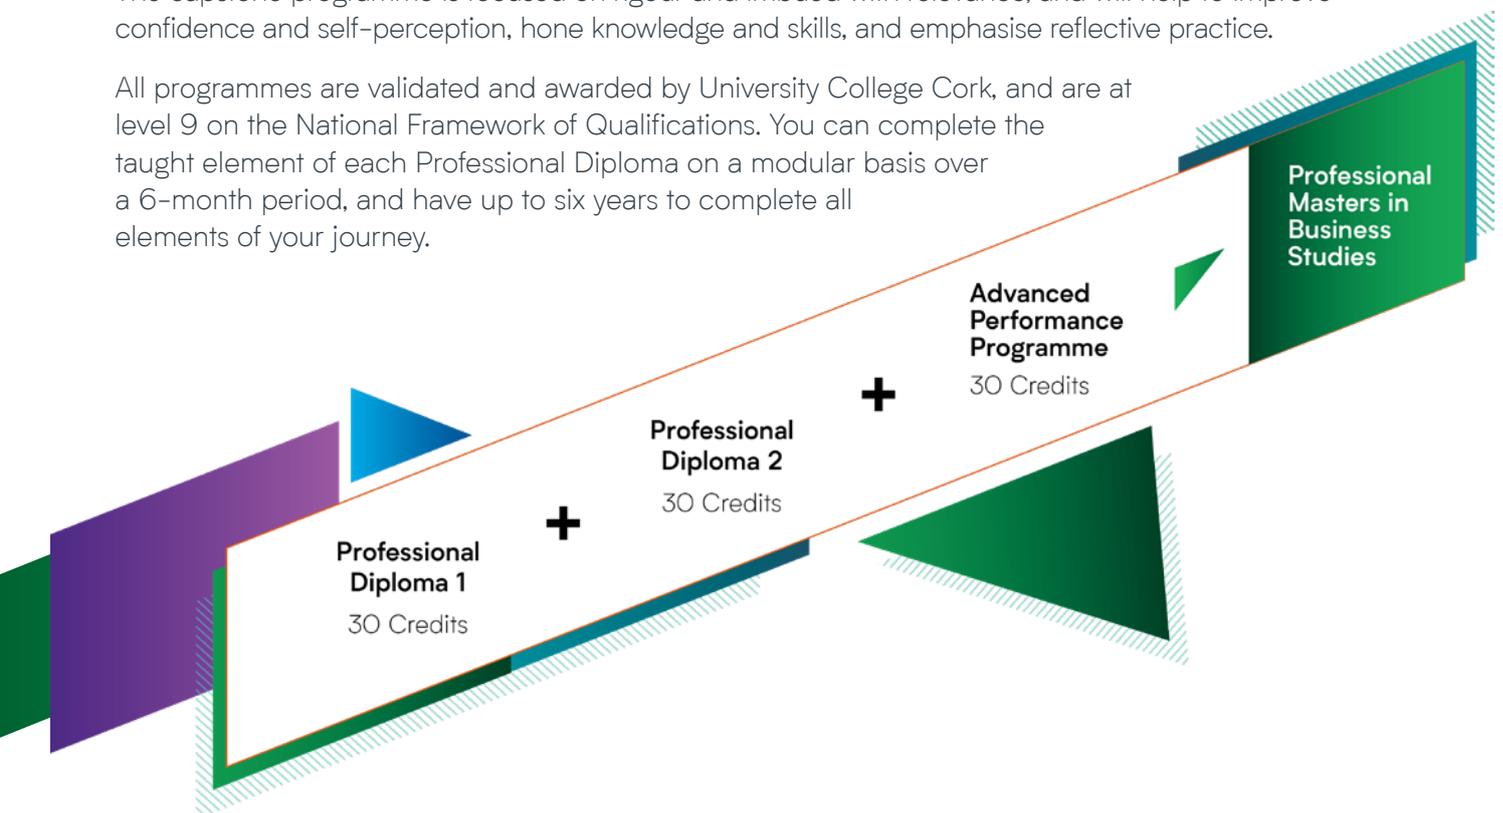

Master of Business Framework

The Master of Business gives you the flexibility to choose the subjects that are right for your needs, while building up to a Masters Degree qualification. Each element of your journey promises to be an energising learning experience leading to a world class qualification.

The Masters qualification requires you to complete two Professional Diplomas before undertaking a final capstone programme to bring your learning together in an integrative experience, that will positively impact your professional career and your organisation.

The capstone programme is focused on rigour and imbued with relevance, and will help to improve confidence and self-perception, hone knowledge and skills, and emphasise reflective practice.

All programmes are validated and awarded by University College Cork, and are at level 9 on the National Framework of Qualifications. You can complete the taught element of each Professional Diploma on a modular basis over a 6-month period, and have up to six years to complete all elements of your journey.

The Advanced Performance Programme is for professionals who want to bring their leadership capabilities to a new level. Through a blended focus on the environment, the organisation, and the individual, the APP serves to synthesise the learning outcomes of your IMI journey.

Designed and delivered in partnership with Cork University Business School, this pathway will lead to a Professional Master of Business Studies, Ireland's first Professional Masters of its kind.

Programme Delivery

Our High Impact Transformation learning approach lies at the core of all IMI programmes, meaning these sessions are always interactive, engaging and experiential.

Action and experiential learning — doing and reflecting — is a highly effective leadership and team development technique, which you will find enjoyable, challenging and in many cases transformational.

Entry Requirements:

A candidate's eligibility for each Professional Diploma or the Professional Master of Business Studies will be determined by a combination of their academic qualifications and/or relevant professional experience. A primary degree from a recognised third-level institution (NFQ level 8), with a minimum classification of Second Class Honours, will typically be required with five years relevant work experience, at least 3 of which must be at managerial level, however, prior workplace learning will be recognised where applicants do not meet the academic requirement. This experience may come from a general business or organisational background, or experience working at a management level or in the area specifically related to the Diploma. Each candidate will meet with the Programme Directors, who will interview applicants in person virtually or physically. The IMI Office of the Registrar will oversee all applications, and the final decision on any application shall remain with the Registrar. All applicants whose first language is not English will be required to show evidence of the successful completion of an IELTS or TOEFL test or equivalent as specified here. The English language requirement when using IELTS is a score of 6.5 with a minimum of 6.0 in each individual section or equivalent.

Autumn delivery:

This Autumn, all of our Professional Diplomas will be delivered in-person at the IMI Campus to facilitate the best learning experience for participants. We will facilitate a hybrid delivery option should you require it.

Validation

Each Professional Diploma is awarded by University College Cork and is at level 9 on the National Framework of Qualifications.

Assignments and Workload

To earn a Masters Degree or Professional Diploma, participants will be assessed through a variety of practical assignments. Programmes will have no examinations; instead, the emphasis throughout is on the practical application of knowledge to benefit you and your organisation. Assessment workload extends across the programme to allow you to combine your learning with your work and life demands.

Paperless policy

Brochures and course materials will exclusively be available to participants on our immersive Virtual Learning Environment. By adopting a paperless approach, IMI and our participants are reducing our carbon footprint and doing our bit for the planet. IMI's mission is to equip leaders to build the future. We are mindful that this future depends on organisations finding creative ways to sustainably deliver performance, both sustainability in the human performance of organisations and in how we use the planet's resources.
